

L. A. Huffman

Photographer of the American West
by Larry Len Peterson

Frontier photographer L. A. Huffman (1854–1931) accurately recorded a passing way of life on the American western frontier like no other artist. He was as comfortable photographing the haunting images of the plains Indians as he was the working cowboy. Informative text is complemented with personal photographs of Huffman and his friends, plus many of his printed and published collectibles and memorabilia are reproduced for the first time.

308 pages, 500+ historic images, paper $45.00

The Lives of Mountain Men

by Bill Harris

This detailed and comprehensively illustrated book chronicles the lives of a rugged breed of men.

Illustrations include remarkable pen-and-ink drawings from the Fur Trade Illustration Project of the Jefferson National Expansion memorial, and paintings and prints that recreate the day-to-day lives of the mountain men.

144 pages, color & b&w images, cloth $27.95

Promise

Bozeman's Trail to Destiny

by Serle L. Chapman

foreword by Henrietta Mann

illustrated by Kevin Red Star and Donald Montileaux

What better way to tell this story than to join with the descendants of those who traveled and fought on the Bozeman Trail. "Chapman's stunning photographs and gripping prose bring a fresh, new perspective on the Bozeman Trail that will challenge latter-day historians and history buffs to view the Trail with a new set of eyes – one that tells the story from all points of view," Jude Carino, Director of the National Historic Trails Interpretive Center.

214 pages, color illus., cloth $49.95, paper $29.95

The Paintings of Tucker Smith
introduction by John A. Murray foreword by William G. Kerr

A retrospective look at the thirty-plus year career of the renowned Western painter, this unique portfolio provides an overview of the artist and his work that is distinct from that experienced in an art museum or a fine arts gallery.

204 pages, 142 color images, 39 b&w sketches, cloth $65.00

Weaver of Dreams

The Life and Architecture of Robert C. Reamer
by Ruth Quinn

This biography of a long neglected American architect begins with his most famous creation, Old Faithful Inn (1903-1904) in Yellowstone National Park. This 140-room hostelry made a significant impact on American architecture, stimulating other architects to experiment with rustic in natural settings, and becoming a "benchmark of National Park architecture."

209 pages, historic b&w photos, cloth $39.95, paper $29.95

Gunsmoke and Saddle Leather

Firearms in the Nineteenth-Century American West

by Charles G. Worman

The gun, like the axe and the plow, was an essential tool in the exploration and settlement of the trans-Mississippi West. Worman describes the gun's impact on the lives of those in the West using their own words to tell that story wherever possible.

360 pages, 559 halftones, cloth $55.00

Cowboy Boots

by Tyler Beard

photographs by Jim Arndt

A close up look at the veritable trunk show of some of the most impressive cowboy boot designs from the most prestigious and famed bootmakers in the world.

320 pages, 6 x 6 paper with flaps, 500 color photos, $15.95

The Art of American Arms Makers

Marketing Guns, Ammunition, and Western Adventure During the Golden Age of Illustration
by Richard C. Rattenbury

preface by Charles P. Schroeder

Presented for the first time, colorful lithographs and often-dramatic paintings that were used to advertise guns and ammunition between 1880 and 1930.

132 pages, 7 b&w illus, 141 color illus., paper, $29.95

How the West Was Worn

Bustles and Buckskins on the Wild Frontier
by Chris Enss

Enss examines the fashion that shaped the frontier. Short essays; brief clips from letters, magazines, and other period sources; and period illustrations demonstrate the sometimes bizarre, often beautiful, and frequently highly inventive ways of dressing oneself in the Old West.

224 pages, b&w illus. & photos, paper $16.95

Forty Years on the Frontier

by Granville Stuart

edited by Paul C. Phillips

Complete in one volume! Originally published in 1925, Stuart's edited reminiscences are a priceless and authentic account of pioneering, prospecting, and community building in the northern Rockies and Great Plains.

537 pages, paper $19.95

James J. Hill

Empire Builder of the Northwest

by Michael P. Malone

Malone explores Hill's complex life and personality, his activities and interests, and recreates both the story of the railroad race to the Pacific and the complex interactions involved in the development of the region.

320 pages, 14 illus., maps, paper $19.95

Wanted! Wanted Posters of the Old West

collected by Sheriff John C. Moe of Missoula County

text by Martin Kidston and Barbara Fifer

This rare collection of wanted posters from the American West is an historical treasure of information on the history of wanted posters and the fascinating stories behind the crimes.

208 pages, b&w art and photos, paper $19.95

Camp Cooking

100 Years

by The National Museum of Forest Service History

A charming cookbook celebrating decades of camp cooking by Forest Service agents in the field. Included are legendary recipes for Dutch oven meals, open-fire dishes, and other tasty outdoor specialties used daily in the early days of the Forest Service, plus dozens of recipes, photos, and anecdotes that tell the history of these brave and hardy individuals.

192 pages, 180 duo-tone photos, spiral $9.95

How to Win a Cowboy's Heart

Favorite Western Recipes

by Kathy Lynn Wills

illustrated by Linda Bark'karie and Linda K. Gage

The tantalizing but simple recipes will show you how to add flavorful cowboy style and frontier mystery to everyday meals. Included are dozens of recipes with lots of cooking tips, advice on pairing dishes, and tales of old-time cooking.

112 pages, illus., paper $9.95

Jewish Life in the American West

edited by Ava F. Kahn

"An intriguing and illuminating glimpse of an overlooked chapter in the history of the American frontier. The real-life saga of Jewish cowboys and collective farmers is considerably fresh." Jonathan Kirsch, Los Angeles Times

144 pages, paper $22.50

Bleed, Blisters, and Purge

A History of Medicine on the American Frontier
by Dr. Volney Steele

Trace the fits and starts of medical progress on the western frontier. Dr. Steele takes the reader from rotgut whiskey to modern anesthetics, from castor oil to antibiotics, and from barroom surgery to modern hospital operations. Using government reports and first-person remembrances, Steele creates a full, clear, and colorful picture of illness and the healing art in the old West.

358 pages, 100+ historic photos, medical term glossary, paper $15.00

